CLERK: Mr. President, we have a request to insert some amendments in the Journal LB763 by Senator Richendifer.

PRESIDENT: So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, we have a request by Senator Richendifer to insert amendments to LB997 in the Journal.

PRESIDENT: So ordered. Once again, if the President could respectfully suggest that the senators go to their seats. Remember, that was a respectful request. Senator Carpenter, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Point of order. Is this the proper time to ask a request to have two amendments printed in the Journal or should I do it later?

PRESIDENT: Fine. Go ahead.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I'm sending two amendments to the Clerk's desk which will be printed in the Journal. Number one is an amendment to LB803, the bank holding bill which I'm going to attempt to raise on this floor. The other bill is LB1017 which has to do with the replacing upon the bill the Revenue Committee part to put out for bonds, a raise of 2¢ in the gasoline tax.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered. We'll have them printed. If I might have your attention, please. The Chair would like to respectfully request that two of the senators sitting under the south balcony take their seats. Three senators under the balcony. Excuse me, two, I'm sorry. Two senators take their seats so that we can begin final reading. Okay, attention please, the final reading of LB664. The assistant clerk will read the bill.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Read LB664.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is shall the bill pass with the emergency clause attached. All those in favor will vote aye. All those opposed will vote no. You are voting on the final passage of LB664. Once again the Chair would inquire if you have all voted. Have you all voted? Clerk will record.

CLERK: Read vote. 45 ayes, no nays, 4 not voting.

PRESIDENT: The bill has passed with the emergency clause attached. Attention please. The final reading of LB666.
